

The Weekly Word

No. 87 Friday 12th July 2019

A note from the Principal

We have had the most brilliant couple of weeks on campus. Firstly, the weather held for our sports day which proved one of the most successful we have run.

Charlecote were the victors due to their willingness to take part in as many events as possible. They were rewarded with a "street party" the following morning. This week has been aspirations week. An opportunity to take part in new activities and meet new people. Bake-off saw some beautiful cakes being cooked; 43 students did a 10 mile walk through the lovely Oxfordshire countryside; a group went to London and experienced a range of drama related activities; over 90 students went to the outdoor pool; Brecon Beacons was the destination for a group of students who camped and did a range of water sports; and so the list goes on.... and on. We are already planning for next year and we will be running two foreign trips and several trips in this country.

We will make sure we advertise these at the beginning of the autumn term so that payment can be made over several months. Today we will be running the Race for Life with everyone involved in one way or another and this completes an action packed week.

Next week we break up for the summer on Friday 19th July. We will have normal lessons P1 – 3 and students will then go off to their mentor groups at 12.30. Students will be dismissed college by college from 12.45 onwards according to the attendance of the college.

Art and Performance Showcase

The Art and Performance Showcase at Wykham Park Academy on Tuesday 2nd July was a fabulous celebration of Art, Textiles, Music and Drama. We were delighted to welcome our VIP guests: Deputy Mayor Surinder Dhesi, Banbury Town Councillors Steve Kilsby and Alastair

Milne Home and all students, parents and visitors who came along to see our hugely talented students' work.

Brecon Beacons 2019

23 pupils went to camp in the Brecon Beacons for 4 days and 3 nights. They completed activities such as raft building, Kata Canoeing, Climbing and went for a trek up Tan Troed one of the smaller Brecon hills! They had to take responsibility and wash-up after a meal for the whole group and tidy the communal area. The pupils behaved brilliantly and overcame fears on some of the tasks. Here are some picture highlights!

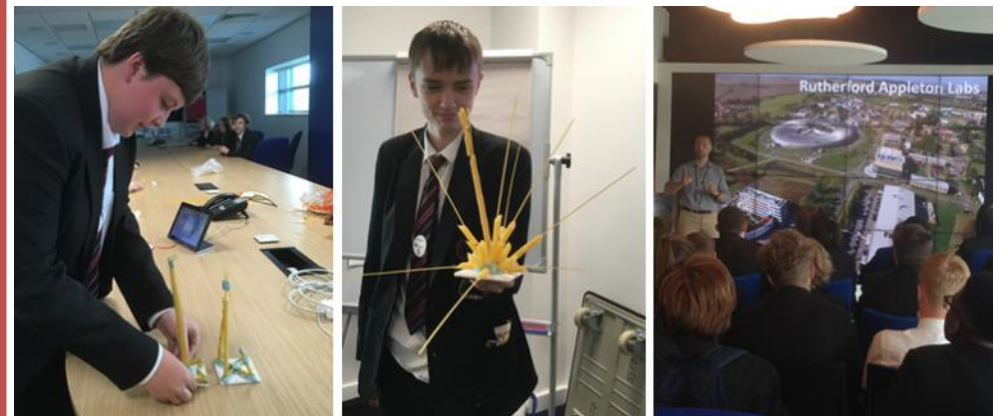

Rutherford Appleton Laboratory

Year 9 at Space Studio Banbury (with 6 new members who will be joining in September) had a fantastic bespoke visit to the Rutherford Appleton Laboratory. They had talks from eminent scientists about the amazing work done at RAL with special focus on the James Webb telescope which will be launched in 2021. In the Catapult facility they had an intriguing view of how satellites can be used to track vessels at sea and spot illegal activity.

They also got the chance to stress test their own designs!

A brilliant day out for aspiring scientists and engineers.

AlterEgo Theatre Productions

This term we have commissioned Applied Theatre specialists AlterEgo Creative Solutions to perform two productions for our students.

Last week year 10 students watched the production 'Chelsea's Choice' raising awareness around the issue of Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE). The production covered healthy/unhealthy relationships, safe internet use, what is consent, the grooming process, CSE, avoiding victim blame and where to get help. More information about the production can be found on the AlterEgo website here.

Next week Year 9 will be watching the production 'County Lines' raising awareness around the issue of Child Criminal Exploitation (CCE), specifically the County Lines drug trafficking model which targets vulnerable young people. The production covers what is County Lines, how it can affect young people, the grooming process, the similarities between CSE and CCE, and where they can go for help and advice. More information about the production can be found on the AlterEgo website here.

Should you have any questions or concerns about the production please contact Elaine King, Welfare Manager, who will be happy to set your mind at rest.
